swag

Chapter 3 by jeffyb

There is a tale about people who publicly use the word "swag" tend to die of acute diarrhea.

Chapter 4 by romantiCaveman

Diseases can't infect a word or a concept, but the parents who told their children these stories didn't know any better. Like many fairy tales, it was a warning: "those who utter the word 'swag' without irony or shame will suffer the dual slings of diarrhea and death."

It was only recently that archaeologists found proof of this "diarrhea of the swag" tale during a dig in Nigeria. They found a mummified cat who died of these causes in 725 AD, with only the word "swag" in all lowercase clawed in the dirt in front of it.

"Swag" Said Dr. Cabbage. He adjusted his glasses to make sure he hadn't misread.

"Swag" Said Professor Boggs. He pulled out a scroll and was coming satisfied by this discovery.
